LARGE NUMBER OF TEACHERS ATTEND

unifying the schools and working up uniformity in the course of study. He gave some good talks and made a good impression.

E. B. Conklin left his alfalfa and Jersey cows and gave himself up to a full three days enjoyment. He sure helped out.

Every teacher was there from the Ontario schools. The institute as a whole compared very favorably with other institutes and no doubt but that every teacher was benefitted at least as much as she had anticipated.

Report of Malheur County Teachers' Institute, Vale, Sept. 10-12, 1913.

Although not called to order by County Superintendent MacPherson until 1:30 p. m. ecrollment began at eleven o'clock and by 3:30 p. m. 80 teachers had registered. The total number for the institute was 83,

On Wednesday the program was opened by a short but valuable talk on how to present the subject of Geography by Mr. G. W. Duncan of Westfall, followed by a long and interesting discussion on Ethics led by Mr. E. B. Cocklin. During the recess between these talks a petition requesting the abolishment of the annual institute and the substitution of a trainng school was circulated, was signed y a good number and the hour was set for the next morning at nice clock as the time for the distribuion of ballots.

in the evening session Mr. Crandall of Vale made an address of welcome which was replied to by Judge Biggs. on what this Dr. Weese presented a treat deal of valuable information on

On Thursday morning Mrs. Ritta Payne lead a lively discussion on the eaching of reading by the phonetic method. Miss Agnes Jones, special instructor in penmanship gave the teachers a practical demonstration of the correct way to teach the Palmer system recently adopted.

The afternoon was devoted entirely to arithmetic, discussions being led by Mr. W. J. Roberts, Mrs. Winona Doty and Mrs. Roberts.

The Thursday evening session was perhaps the best one of all. Mr. Frank K. Welles, assistant state superintendent, talked on "Our Educaional Outlook" and Mr. Pittman of the state normal school at Monmouth m "Wanted, a Teacher." These two gentlemen were given a rousing vote of thanks by the teachers for their timely and enthusiastic addresses.

On Friday morning Mrs. Olive Sweitcer discussed the teaching of history, C. D. Rush the subject of literary socities, Frank K. Welles, denominate numbers, Mr. Psttman read Riley and Mr. Bailey brought the institute to a close with a talk on the new text books.
